

1963 Ford Econoline E100

AUCTION ITEM

3130

SERIAL

E10TH326075

FEATURES

Completely restored
Rebuilt engine/transmission
Viper red paint

This 1963 Ford Econoline E100 was found abandoned in a pasture in 1998. The current owner estimates that it sat there for 25 years. He and his brother completely restored the truck. They have traveled to several car shows with it, and even won the Garden City Show. Everything in the truck is new and, according to the seller, is in great shape.

Engine and drive train

- Rebuilt 250 cu. in. V-6 1979 Granada engine
 - new radiator
 - new engine components
- Heavy duty Ford 9" rear end from a 1979 patrol car

Transmission

- Rebuilt C-6 three-speed 1979 Ford LTD automatic

Suspension and wheels

- New wheels and tires

Brakes

- New front and rear brakes
- New brake drums
- New brake lines and hardware
- New master cylinder

Body and interior

- Custom R&B gauges
- Custom upholstery with noise suppression insulation
- New custom R&B wiring harness
- Painted bed-liner and undercoating
- 2001 Viper red paint

